

DSWCI ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING AND DX-CAMP
at Vejers Beach, Denmark
June 4th to June 6th 2010

Now it is time to register, if you want to participate this year's Annual General Meeting (AGM) and DX-Camp at Vejers Beach, situated at the West coast of Jutland, and about 75 km. north from the border of Germany. There is just about 1½ hours by car from Flensburg in Germany to the site.

Similar to the previous years, we have decided to have the AGM and DX Camp at the scout camp called "Vardeborg" situated at Vejers Beach. This location has excellent opportunities for long wire antennas out into the dunes.

We at the Board should of course very much like to meet you at this annual event, both members that use to come, as well as members who never or seldom show up to this great event.
